BARD NOW GAINING, SAY THE WISE ONES.
Flint is Back from San Francisco and Without Herrin's "Word."
The Admitted Leading Candidate of a Week Ago is Conceded to Have Had the Best of the Fight Then, but Now the Claim is Made That Thirty Votes for Him Would Cause Surprise.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After two days spent in San Francisco, where many of them want to consult with the supposed powers with reference to the Senatorial situation, practically all the members of the Legislature returned to Sacramento tonight, and those of them who are known to have Southern Pacific leanings came back without showing evidences of elation as a result of their trip. They had gone there hoping that Herrin would give the long looked-for "word" which, in their opinion, would settle the contest and decide in favor of whomever Herrin selected for the Senatorship. But the word was not given, or if it was, none of the railroad men received it, and their disappointment and dissatisfaction was very evident.
A week ago tonight, Flint was admitted to be the leading candidate. Then he had by far the best of the fight, and even his opponents now say that had the balloting begun last Monday it is probable Flint would have been far in the lead and possibly might have been elected. On this, the night of the first day of the second week of the legislative session, the opinion generally prevails that Flint is much weaker than he was a week ago; that he has gradually lost strength; that his chances of success are not as good as they have been in the past. Since he entered the contest, "Men, whose business it is to measure the situation without prejudice, have been who are not themselves politicians, but who are thoroughly informed as to the politics of the State, now express the opinion that Bard is leading, and that his cause will continue to grow stronger. A demand for some tangible evidence of this in point of votes gained or of men who have declared themselves for Bard would probably be difficult to meet, but that sentiment pervades the capital, and it is becoming stronger as time passes. The sentiment itself is doing the Bard cause a world of good, because there are members who, desiring to be with the winning side, will accept that sentiment as an evidence that Bard is going to win, and will support him. If the sentiment were the reverse, they would support the man in whose favor it seemed to be.

The members have not quit talking about Prescott's flop. In the Flint camp, it is practically admitted that Prescott's action did not help Flint, because it will have the effect of deterring voters from doing likewise. That is politically damned Prescott at home is evidenced by the many telegrams he has received from Southern California, and that it is a measure benefitted the Bard cause is very evident.
Unless there is some overlooked change in the situation, "the Bard managers claim that Bard will receive a greater vote on the first ballot Tuesday than any of the other candidates, and they claim that such strength as he develops will remain with him until the end.
U. S. Grant, Jr., arrived here tonight from Missouri. He comes, not as a candidate for Senatorial honors, but is here to exercise his franchise as a member of the California electoral college, which meets tomorrow. Tonight he declined to discuss the Senatorial contest, pleading that he had just arrived and had not had an opportunity to get any information on the situation. He declared, however, that he is not a candidate.
A large party of Flint boomers from Los Angeles will arrive here tomorrow. Flint partisans have been dropping into town by ones and twos all day, and there are now as many Los Angeles men here as those from San Francisco. If whooping up things, making what is intended to be a show of strong support and personal efforts on the part of numerous friends will cause Flint to regain what he has lost, that effort will be made.
The fight is now one of Bard or Herrin. As has long been known, there is not the slightest possibility of a Southern California caucus, nor is there a possibility at present of a general Republican caucus, and it will therefore be an open fight, with the unbroken phalanx of the Bard forces against the divided supporters of the various other candidates. The first ballot, Tuesday, will not necessarily be a real test of strength, because there will be so many complimentary votes for various prominent Californians that it will not be until the joint ballot of Wednesday that there will be any significant showing of strength. A week ago, Flint and his supporters were declaring that Flint would win on the first or second ballot. Now they admit that that is not possible, and they well know that Flint's support is already reaching the flood line of its strength. Unless he develops the strength that he has so often claimed, there are members who will regard his failure to do so as an indication of weakness, and so will not help him any.
All of the candidates are fighting shy of giving out actual figures, and are predicting of what vote each will receive would be guessing, pure and simple. If Flint has thirty votes, all told, and he may not have more than twenty, it will cause general surprise. His friends have heretofore claimed fifty or more for him, but such a claim is now regarded as foolish.
TRYING TO LURE BARD.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Chronicle's Sacramento special says that legislators who remained in Sacramento over Sunday had little else to do but discuss the Senatorial situation, and the chances of the various candidates were pretty generally canvassed. The big majority who are waiting for word or sack, kept anxious ear cocked toward San Francisco, where Knight, Flint and Oxnard were supposed to be "finishing matters" with Herrin, and the failure of the conferences with the dictator to result in any definite action on his part puts the men who do not know how they are to be voted in a greater quandary than ever.
The failure of Bard to take advantage of the situation and come to Sacramento will probably have some effect upon "dark horse" probabilities. Bard's arrival would have given his candidacy, which has unquestionably gained during the week, a decided impetus and would have forced Herrin to get some outsider into the running. Without Bard on the ground, matters will probably be delayed, and the Knight and Flint men will be allowed to try each other out a little longer. This means longer preliminary balloting before Herrin finally shows his hand.
The same old crowd returned from the visit to the shrine at San Francisco. The same old boomers make the same old talks, and if anyone is wiser for contact with Herrin, it is not apparent on the surface. In fact, things in the "Organization" camp seem more mixed than ever, and now Flint is always considered as a factor in the talk about what Herrin is going to do. Both Flint and Knight insist that Herrin shall extend the "hands off" policy to Flint, and let the three work out their own salvation.

GRANT IN SACRAMENTO.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 8.—What promised to be a dull Sunday in legislative circles proved to be rather interesting before the day was concluded. The Senatorial situation was calmed this afternoon through the arrival of Ulysses S. Grant, Jr., one of the members of the electoral college, which will hold exercises tomorrow afternoon in the Assembly chamber of the State Capitol.
On account of the fact that Grant has been a previous candidate for United States Senator, he was at once approached by the newspaper men and asked his present visit was in part for the purpose of entering the present Senatorial contest. To all of his questioners, Grant replied that his trip here was solely for the purpose of attending to his duties as an elector. He refused to say, however, but that he might become a candidate in the event of a deadlock.
"I am here for the purpose only of participating in the programme that is to be presented tomorrow by the electoral college, of which I am a member," Grant said. "Further than that I do not care to talk."
"Is there a possibility that you may become a Senatorial candidate before the contest is over, especially if there happens to be a deadlock?" was asked Grant.
"As to that I do not care to say," was the answer.
That a strong fight is to be made on behalf of Frank P. Flint, before the Senatorial contest is concluded, was evidenced tonight, when it was given out that a large delegation of his supporters from Los Angeles are to arrive at Sacramento tomorrow morning. Among the visitors from the south will be Motley H. Flint, a brother of the candidate, who is Postmaster of Los Angeles; James Campbell, City Treasurer of Pasadena, and a number of other influential men.
Nearly all the members of the electoral college have arrived, and are now busy in concluding the arrangements for the exercises to be conducted tomorrow afternoon. It was decided tonight that William S. Wood is to be the chairman of the exercises and that Richard Melrose is to be the master who will carry the electoral vote to Washington.

SAN FRANCISCO LINE-UP.
GIVES FLINT A LEAD.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The United States Senatorial fight was transferred to this city yesterday. Many of the members of both houses of the Legislature came to San Francisco in search of a change from the routine of official work at the Capital City and with the hope in view that they might encounter that mystic "word" that political rumor has circulated, would settle the contest for the toga. But the "word" was not given out, and the members merely had a little respite from the capital and probably enjoyed drinks unfashionably with Herrin.
Among the arrivals were Flint, Oxnard and Knight. Flint kept to his rooms at the Palace Hotel much of the day, where he met his henchmen and transacted regular headquarters business. Walter Parker, his manager, did the circulating for him. His candidate, Oxnard moved about among the legislators, as did Andrews, the lawyer of Los Angeles who is one of the Sugar King's managers.
Knight was here, there and everywhere, still expressing confidence in his election. That the campaign was not yet become "rattled" in his canvass was apparent in the remark by him that he had not yet ordered the Roman robe with broad border nor the pair of sandals. Oxnard's confidence is a source of mystery to the politicians, who have been unable to discover where the little man from Ventura is to get any appreciable number of votes to encourage his ambition.
"Tom" Hughes of Los Angeles, one of Bard's managers, was in the city, and did not give any indication of perturbation over the much-repeated claims that the "organization" was against his candidate.
The politicians today were in a gloomy mood, which was probably a reflection of the weather and the result of the fact that no one could say what Herrin wanted. It was estimated by the "sharps" that of the 111 Republican votes that will be cast at Sacramento next Tuesday for United States Senator, Flint will receive from 35 to 40; Bard, 30 to 35; Knight, 15 to 20; Fisk, 15 to 20; Huef, 10 to 15, and Oxnard, 5 to 10.
OLIVER HARRIMAN'S ESTATE.
NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State tax appraiser for Westchester county reports Oliver Harriman, Sr., who lived at Mount Kisco, left a personal estate valued at $4,000,000. The inheritance tax will amount to about $400,000. The tax is not larger, because the estate is entirely inherited by children. The property consisted chiefly of railroad and investment bonds.

EVENTFUL VOYAGE OF THE ZAMBESI.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]
NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—The British steamer Zambesi, from Savannah for Bremen with a cargo of cotton and phosphate, put into this port this morning after a most eventful voyage, with her cargo of cotton on fire and with several of her crew sick.
Capt. Rooney of the Zambesi reports that he sailed from Savannah New Year's day. The vessel experienced very severe weather. All went well, however, until January 5, when the steamer struck a submerged wreck, which broke the stem and stove in several of the bow plates under water, causing the forepeak to fill with water. The ship was immediately headed for port, nearly 100 miles distant.

NEW YORK'S DRYEST.
Tammany Sends Forth Orders Police Get Busy—Nearly One Hundred Arrests.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] This has been the driest Sunday that Greater New York has known for many years. Following the revelations by Dr. Parkhurst and Dist. Atty. Jerome and appreciating the rising tide of prohibition, Tammany sent forth its orders, and the police got busy. Nearly one hundred arrests were made in Manhattan alone.
The old Baines law sandwiches were dragged forth, but even with these it was hard for any but regulars to get drinks served. Saloon men, acting upon orders in certain precincts, closed their places tight. Tammany declares there will be no more violations if he can help it, while he remains in office.

WASHINGTON.
HE TURNS THE TIDE.
Bard Gets Support for Arizona.
Amendment to Joint Statehood Bill Will Make an End of It.
Senators Teller and Bailey to Prevent a Vote on the Obnoxious Measure.
Appropriation Bills in House. Pension Measure is on the Tapis.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Bard of California seems certain to win out in his fight in behalf of the separate admission of Arizona and New Mexico. This does not mean that these Territories will be admitted at this session of Congress, but that they will not be united into one State. What seems likely to prevail now is the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one State and the leaving of Arizona and New Mexico as they are. An amendment to the effect will shortly be introduced, and a solid Democratic delegation and a number of leading Republicans are known to favor it, as the one State plan for two Territories this session is sure of defeat.
To further emphasize the defeat of the one-State advocate, it is recalled that Senator Teller has never yet threatened to talk a bill to divide and failed to make good. He and Senator Bailey of Texas, both of whom are strong for separate Statehood, have given notice that if emergency should arise, they will never allow the bill to come to a vote. There is yet possibility that the President will quietly urge the admission of both Territories under their own names. This would end the controversy.
THE POSTER COMMENT.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Post will say tomorrow morning:
"A strong and forceful contribution to Congressional literature on the question of Statehood for the Territories is contained in the speech of Senator Bard of California in the Senate Friday. The Statehood Bill in various forms has been very prominently before Congress for several sessions, and nearly all of the leaders in the Senate and House have discussed the measure at length. Senator Bard is strongly opposed to the pending measure, combining New Mexico and Arizona in one State, and his exposition of his arguments in support of his position was so forceful and cogent that his colleagues, with marked unanimity, credit him with having won all of the honors of the prolonged debate on the subject."
"Senator Bard insists that Congress has no right to compel the union of two Territories, but that the right of autonomy belongs within the Territories themselves and cannot be taken from them by act of Congress without consent of the people. He makes the rather telling point that the bill, as it now stands, was prepared to meet the wishes of certain elements in Congress, but that the wishes of the residents of Arizona and New Mexico were never considered or consulted. He presents a volume of testimony, showing all classes of citizens in both Territories are unalterably opposed to the proposed merger, and they very much prefer to be left alone as Territories. If separate Statehood cannot be given them, he further shows that the bill which created the Territory of Arizona especially reserved the right of persons living in said Territory to seek Statehood and be admitted under certain conditions, and provided the form of government that should be maintained in said Territory until the residents of said Territory shall take the initiative to form a State government."
"The Senator's argument will doubtless have an influencing effect in the consideration of the Statehood Bill, and the prediction is now made that the outcome will be the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one State, with action on the claims of New Mexico and Arizona postponed for a future Congress. Incidentally, Senator Bard's speech on the Statehood measure has given him new rank in the Senate. He is a plain business man, and while his services have always been in demand and he has never before been counted upon as a speaking member of the body a masterly handling of the State subject, in which he met the measure of some of the best of the Senate, has now given him a place as a floor supporter of questions needing forceful, logical presentation.

California's retention of Mr. Bard in the Senate, is confidently expected by his colleagues and others with his fine record and high standing in that body.

SENATE AND HOUSE.
STAGGERED IN SENATE.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The Joint Session of the Senate and House of Representatives will continue to be the principal topic of discussion in the Senate during the present week, but the measure will receive attention only during the morning hours, including the Omnibus Claims Bill, for which Senator Warren stands sponsor.

The bill comprises more than 200 pages, but the Senator already has succeeded in having it read by utilizing odd hours, and thus has put a measure of importance to the work of the Senate.

It is expected that the measure will be made to the House by providing for the compensation of American fishermen whose vessels were seized previously by the Japanese. This measure is in the hands of Senator Fulton, who will press it as an act of justice to men who have been wronged.

The Pure Food Bill will remain in the background for the time being, because the friends of that measure have abandoned it, but because they consider that its chances will be improved by not pressing for immediate consideration. They have been assured by the Republican leaders that a bill shall have first place on the calendar, aside from the appropriation bills, after the Statehood Bill is disposed of, and therefore they will not antagonize the Statehood Bill for present, if at all.

Discussion of the Statehood question will begin Monday with a speech by Senator Morgan, and he will be followed by other opposing Senators. The present plan of the opposition is to keep the discussion going until some of the appropriation bills are reported, and it becomes necessary to take time out, or, if this is postponed too long, to replace the bill with the Pure Food Bill, as in all these expedients, they probably will seek a compromise.

The only real fight is against the untimely introduction of the bill for Arizona and New Mexico, and the bill for the consolidation of the Hawaiian and Indian Territory with the United States.

Thus far there has been no interference of opposing factions on the subject, and the bill for the Hawaiian Islands to change the present status so that the leaders are anxious to keep other matters in the background until the House takes action on the present measure. It is the intention of the House to keep the bill for the Hawaiian Islands in the background until the House takes action on the present measure.

It is expected that the resolutions introduced by Representative Dwyer, touching the Judiciary Committee and no credit will be reported back Monday. The action taken by the House on these resolutions, criticizing the President and Secretary Morton.

WILL GO TO BITTER END.

Emperor and His Council to Continue Hostilities.

Minster Lamdorff's Talk of Peace Has Echoes.

Japan Has Not Made the Proposals Expected.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 8, 2:10 a.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The conference which Emperor Nicholas has been holding with members of the Council of the Empire, M. Witte and other members and advisors, on the internal and external situation has been concluded, but nothing has occurred which would indicate that the government is prepared to depart from its present programme of continuing the war to the bitter end. Nevertheless, talk of peace was heard Sunday in many quarters, the foundation for it being ascribed to Foreign Minister Lamdorff's alleged position in favor of such a course, on the ground that, aside from the humiliation to military prestige involved, it would only mean the relinquishment of Manchuria, to which Russia already is formally pledged.

There is no confirmation of this statement of Count Lamdorff's position beyond the general knowledge that he always has belonged to the peace party. It is quite probable that the peace talk has been produced by the arrival of foreign papers, as it receives no encouragement in responsible quarters here.

The belief which existed in exceptionally well-informed diplomatic circles that Japanese would follow the fall of Port Arthur with moderate peace propositions has not been realized. Up to the present time nothing has reached the government, either through the United States or other channels. Diplomats here cannot figure out the general lines of a treaty at this juncture, which both belligerents would accept, but realize that if Japan makes any sort of offer, unless it is rejected outright as not entertaining, negotiations will be opened and negotiations at once entered upon in which friends of both parties could use their good offices and bring about good terms. This is the only hope for a termination of the war which diplomats can see.

Solemn services in honor of those who fell in the defense of Port Arthur were held Sunday at the Kazan Cathedral and the Tikhvi monastery. The service passed off without incident, and the Emperor nor members of the Imperial family were present. A requiem was held simultaneously in the chapel at Tsarskoe Selo.

Although Field Marshal Oyama took pains to formally communicate the news of the fall of Port Arthur to Gen. Kouropatkin, announcement has not been made to the army in Manchuria, or at least no mention of such announcement is made in dispatches from the front of the manner in which the news was received there. One curious dispatch spoke of a big celebration of New Year's Day along the Japanese lines, the Russian evidently mistaking jubilation over Gen. Stoessel's surrender for New Year's festivities.

PORT ARTHUR AFFAIRS.
NAVAL STATION AND MINES.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
TOKIO, Jan. 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Japanese intend to establish a naval station at Port Arthur.

Vice-Admiral Y. Shidzayama will probably be placed in charge of it. The military administration at Port Arthur will retain only a small garrison, as soon as the prisoners are withdrawn and order is restored.

The fleet is busily engaged in clearing mines, but owing to their great number, navigation will be unsafe for a long time. Only government craft will be allowed to enter the harbor.

It is probable that Dally will soon be opened up to neutrals. Japanese companies are preparing to establish weekly services to that port. It is proposed shortly to float a fourth domestic war loan under the same conditions as the third was negotiated.

SEVASTOPOL AND OTVASHNI.
KATAOKA REVIEWS EVENTS.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
TOKIO, Jan. 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] In a report received here last night, Rear-Admiral Kataoka reviews the attempts of the Russians to destroy the battleship Sevastopol and the coast-defense vessel Otvashni, their sinking of the entrance to the harbor, and the dash for freedom of the torpedo-boat destroyers followed by the Smryl and Serditi, which reached Chefoo, and the Smryl and Bolki, which reached Tsing Tau.

The report says that the Japanese protected cruiser Akitsushima and a flotilla of torpedo destroyers followed the four first-named Russian vessels toward Chefoo, and that the protected cruiser Chiyoda and a number of torpedo-boat destroyers followed the Smryl and the Bolki to Tsing Tau.

In both ports, the report says, the Russians were compelled to disarm.

The report in conclusion says: "It beg to report that our brilliant strategic movement in this direction was successfully completed."

PRISONERS OF WAR.
RUSSIANS GOING TO JAPAN.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
HEADQUARTERS OF THE JAPANESE THIRD ARMY AT PORT ARTHUR, via Fusan, Jan. 8.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Gen. Fock, commander of the Fourth East Siberian Rifle Brigade, and Gen. Smryloff, who commanded the forts, have decided to go to Japan as prisoners of war. There were five Admirals at Port Arthur, including Prince Ouktomsky, and one of those will go to Japan. Fifty per cent. of the officers will share imprisonment, with the remainder of the army in Manchuria.

Twenty naval attaches visited Port Arthur and inspected the sunken vessels of the Russian fleet.

[The above dispatch and the earlier dispatch from Tokyo indicate that the rumors of the death of Gen. Fock were without foundation.—Associated Press.]
STOESSEL TO NAGASAKI.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
TOKIO, Jan. 8.—Gen. Stoessel and the other Russian officers who have been given their parole will be brought to Nagasaki on a Japanese transport. It is probable that they will remain at Nagasaki for a few days, and will then sail for Russia on a French steamer via the Suez canal.

CHURCH AND DANCING.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
HEADQUARTERS OF THE THIRD JAPANESE ARMY, Jan. 8, via Fusan.

The Russian prisoners, while waiting today at Changkingtau, a railway station for Dally, celebrated the approach of their New Year. Religious services were held in the morning at 10 o'clock, and the assembling of prisoners was addressed by a Russian priest in full canonicals. After the services, there was music and dancing on the open ground in front of the station. The eight-year-old daughter of a Russian officer was among the prisoners.

Fifty per cent. of the officers are going to Japan.

MUTINY ON PADILLA.
Rich Peruvian Who Bought the Gunboat Is Killed by Natives—Others Perish.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] News comes from Panama that a mutiny has occurred on the former Colombian revolutionist gunboat Padilla, and a rich Peruvian merchant, who recently bought the vessel for a private yacht, has been killed. All that is known at Panama is that the body of the merchant, with five deep knife-wounds on the corpse, was found floating at sea by the steamship Chile, off the coast of Ecuador.

The Padilla has not yet been reported at Callao, although she has had time to go around Cape Horn. Before the Padilla left the isthmus, after having been turned over to her Peruvian owner, the native members of the crew were in a mutinous mood. When Chief Officer O'Connor undertook to give commands to the crew, he was attacked by a number of the men, and laid out cold with a fireman's shovel. So he was left behind at Panama, and when the Padilla sailed next day for Callao, another man took his place as chief officer, R. W. Look, at one time second officer of the Pacific Mail steamer Newport. There were only five white men aboard, and it is feared that in the mutiny of the natives, all were killed.

manifest. But what reason is there why any of the other applicants for the Senate should be chosen? The only argument that can consistently advance is that they want the office. But the people want the office. Let the Legislature make no mistake.

Grown to the full stature of greatness, lifting his State into a standing in the nation's councils equal to the commonwealths of the East, the peer of the most eminent of his colleagues in the Senate, Thomas H. Bard deserves and should receive a unanimous reelection to the seat he has so nobly held.

It is rather startling to learn that General and England were on the verge of war two weeks ago. It would seem that the several hundred thousand men who would be called on to do the fighting ought to know something about such things before they are sent to the front.

It does not necessarily follow that because this fellow Fitzsimmons kept his offices in an operahouse building he was in the show business. What he was doing was a perfectly legitimate business. He was a successful business man. He was a successful business man. He was a successful business man.

When Speaker Prescott returns to his constituency he had better come in the night and take to the back alleys.

If Orlando Fitzsimmons was ever able to cumulate credit now is his time to take the old thing back.

CONTRACTORS' FIRE AROUSED.

BRAIN WILL ENTER PROTEST IN CITY COUNCIL.

Allegis City is Trying to Beat His Company Out of Six Thousand Barrels of Oil—Law Will be Invoked for Fulfillment of Contract—Storm Driven.

W. C. Brain of Tryon-Brain & Co., contractors, will go before the City Council today to protest against the annulment of a contract held by his company for the delivery of 30,000 barrels of oil to the city.

The city is trying to beat out of 30,000 barrels of oil, and we intend to make the city live up to the contract or pay the difference. I believe the law will support our position in the matter," said Brain yesterday.

"We delivered oil to the city as fast as they called for it and could have delivered three times the amount. Since then, the city has refused to pay for the oil. They have refused to pay for the oil. They have refused to pay for the oil."

Brain states that work on the eight-foot storm drain that is to be built from Sixth and Alameda streets, down to the river, will be commenced in ten days. This storm drain is one of the three sections that the city has contracted for.

The drain will be constructed of brick and vitrified pipe. Contracts for the other two sections have not been let.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Lotia Tauscher, a little flax-haired German girl, with ten years of credit according to time standards, and vastly more according to accomplishment, is the center of attraction in the Los Angeles musical world.

Lotia Tauscher, who comes with her governess and her father and mother, is an accomplished little vocalist, and has more operatic repertoire in her than many an artist of the professional stage.

She ought to have, for she is the daughter of Johanna Gadsch-Tauscher, queen of dramatic soprano. This is her mother's fourth daughter, and as usual, she is the most modest of German girls in unprofessional existence, depending absolutely upon her husband for her support.

She is assisted by Selmar Meyrovitz, pianist, recently appointed conductor of the Grand Opera at Prague.

Senator Anderson Stands Fast for Bard.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 8, 1905.—[To the Editor of the Times.] I want to say that the Los Angeles Times has been very kind to publish an article on the subject of the Senate race.

I did state that unless the South were united the Senate might go north to George Knight. I want to say that I have made that statement without adding a further expression of my confidence in Mr. Bard's reelection, and my friends have every reason to think that this was no more confident than this time.

WANZLER RECEIVES MAIL.

TEBANON (Pa.) Jan. 8.—Diligent search of the foreign settlement here has failed to bring to light any additional light on the existence of a man or a woman who was arrested here yesterday by secret operatives and who was later released.

From several of Bard's correspondents it was learned that Wanzler received weekly large amounts of mail.

Scattering Seed.

IN HARMONY with the concerted movement among the churches of this city in the great union evangelistic meeting soon to be launched, the Rev. A. C. Smith preached yesterday morning at the First Christian Church upon "Scattering Seed."

From the scripture, "He that sows seed shall also reap seed," he pointed out the fact that the seed of the kingdom of God is sown in the hearts of men, and that the harvest is the kingdom of God.

"This beautiful scripture is in perfect accord with the spirit now ruling in our churches in the city. It sets forth the conditions and results of successful evangelization. It names three indispensable conditions of true sowing."

First: There must be the going forth of the seed. It is not enough to have the seed in the heart, but it must be sown. It is not enough to have the seed in the heart, but it must be sown.

JAPS EXULT AT TROPICO.

Capture of Port Arthur is Duly Celebrated.

More Than Two Hundred of Brownies Jubilate.

Their Exercises Partake of American Flavor.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

TROPICO, Jan. 8.—The fall of Port Arthur was celebrated in a most loyal and patriotic manner this afternoon at O.A.R. Hall by the local Japanese colony, assisted by a number of their countrymen from Los Angeles. At least 200 were present, as well as many Americans.

A large and imposing arch made of cypress and arbor vitae thickly studded with white chrysanthemums was erected in front of the hall. Across the top was an inscription in teak wood, in Japanese letters of gold, which, translated, reads: "The celebration of the fall of Port Arthur."

Below this was suspended a large disc of bright yellow Japanese orange, resembling the rising sun, the symbol on their flag. From the flag pole on the hall the Stars and Stripes was unfurled, waving its starry folds above the Japanese flag. Radiating from the base of the flag pole were numerous wires connecting with the several telephone poles, from which hundreds of flags and banners floated—flags of the rising sun, war flags and many banners symbolic of Japan in war and in peace. Hundreds of yards of bright crimson, yellow, green and purple streamers were artistically arranged on the wires.

The interior of the Grand Army hall, which has been the scene of so many patriotic gatherings, and which is always gaily decorated with the Stars and Stripes, was converted into a beaming bower of streamers and pennants of yellow, crimson, green and purple. Banners and flags were everywhere displayed. These patriotic Japanese boys so far away from home celebrating their victory and in a foreign land had not forgot the honor and respect due the flag of their adopted country, for Old Glory was in all their decorations given precedence.

The committee having the celebration and decorations in charge was composed of Messrs. J. Yamada, K. Fukunaga, J. Chomori, K. I. Kayano, T. Akita, T. Takahashi, K. Morimoto, K. Akita and J. Manda.

The exercises were opened by T. Akita introducing J. Yamada, who had charge of the program. Yamada delivered an address of welcome in Japanese, which, by the applause accorded his effort, found a ready response in the hearts of the large number of Japanese present. His remarks were followed by T. Chomori, who chanted a poem composed and dedicated to the celebration of their victory at Port Arthur. The poem was indeed somewhat engrossed, on a scroll and was chanted in his native tongue.

At this part of the program Mr. Yamada stepped to the rear of the stage, and drawing aside a large white curtain, he revealed the insignia of the Japanese empire, a life-size portrait of the Emperor of Japan. As each speaker arose to address the audience he first made a humble obeisance to his Emperor.

Band Mura, who is greatly respected and honored by Japanese and who holds an official position in their colony, gave a stirring address in Japanese, in which he gave the causes of the war and the manner in which the war has progressed. His speech was eloquent and loudly applauded by his countrymen.

K. Akita read a poem commemorating the event in the restraining, chanting manner, which, among the Japanese, is considered an exhibition of fine poetry.

H. T. Yamano delivered an address in English, in which he explained in a concise and lucid manner that the Japanese are just as loyal to their country and love their flag as dearly as the Americans who were loyal to their country; also that the Japanese men who have died during this Russo-Japanese war gave up their lives willingly and unhesitatingly for love of country, and rejoiced that they were given this privilege.

T. Yamada delivered an eloquent oration, giving a historical sketch of the war. His speech appealed to his fellow countrymen in sentiment as well as in manner of delivery.

J. Ono of Los Angeles, a graduate of Stanford, one of the most prominent interpreters in Los Angeles, as well as editor of the Japanese newspaper published there, delivered in English, a patriotic and eloquent address which was enjoyed and appreciated as much by the large number of Americans present as by the Japanese. He paid glowing tributes to Washington, Lincoln and Commodore Perry. In closing he told how America was the first to knock for admittance to the gates of Japan and how gladly those gates were opened and with what reverence and esteem, may love, the Japanese regard our country, our progress, civilization and all that makes us the greatest nation that the sun shines on.

As Mr. Ono concluded he received a grand ovation, and Old Glory and the flag of the Rising Sun were sent to dip simultaneously in harmony and benediction.

Louis McKown of Tropic, who with his wife, has spent the last two years teaching a class of Japanese boys, was the next speaker.

Today we begin a sale of suits and furs—Many at half our own regular prices; others a third of Full particulars in Tuesday morning papers; but if you want first pick you'd better come and make your selection today.

Undermuslin Sale at Its Height

It's for you to decide—to buy enough underwear during this sale to last until midsummer, and save quarter to half the usual cost, or to buy when the fancy strikes you, and needs are pressing, and pay full price. The past week's selling has been enormous, but the varieties haven't been depleted—new lines have come in to take the places of those sold out. And these are not to be classed with the garments ordinarily made up for sale purposes.

Their liberal fullness and that distinctive neatness which you have learned to expect in Coulter Undermuslins distinguish even the most inexpensive of these.

Liberal reductions throughout the entire stock.

Corset Covers All the finer styles in which we haven't the full range of sizes, and all that show any effects from handling during the sale, are now offered as follows:
 $2.50 Corset Covers $1.25 $3.00 Corset Covers $1.50
 $2.75 Corset Covers $1.35 $3.50 Corset Covers $1.75
 $4.00 Corset Covers $2.00

Most of these garments are in the new French cuts and blouse effects, and made of either fine muslin, India linen or soft cambric. Some very elaborately trimmed with dainty lace, embroidery and ribbons. The collection includes about 150 garments, in 30 or more styles.

Drawers, Chemises, Gowns, At Half Ends of lots—"a few of this, that and the other" no style in all sizes, but very nearly all sizes somewhere in the lot. Choose at exactly half the regular prices. But you'll need to hurry—there won't be many left by noon.

January Sale of Black Silks

When we saw, months ago, that next Spring's demands for silks were likely to be even stronger than last season's, we went to the mills with orders that commanded liberal price-concessions. If we had waited and paid current market rates, we would have to get 20 to 30 per cent. more than the prices we can quote on the stocks just received.

The goods will be arranged and ready for sale Wednesday morning and Wednesday's papers will contain full information regarding them.

January Linen Sale Continues

No former Linen Sale has matched this in volume of business, because we were never before able to offer such remarkable values. The growth of our hotel business, as well as the retail trade, justified the buying of quantities that would be out of the question for other stores—hence our ability to go direct to the mills and get price concessions enjoyed by no other Los Angeles house. We pass it on to you, and, during this sale, narrow our regular margin of profit considerably.

Los Angeles County and Its Cities and Towns.

(NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.)

When completed, it is said that it will be the longest track in Southern California, with the exception of the one in Los Angeles. Work on the grand stand will soon be commenced. J. G. Burnham, a capitalist recently from Milwaukee, Wis., has commenced the erection of a $5000 residence, on the ranch he purchased from Percy Chin in La Verne. The house was designed by L. T. Bishop, the contractor, and is of the mission style, with plaster finish and tile roof. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Mesa Land and Water Company of La Verne was held yesterday. The secretary's report showed that last season was the most prosperous in the history of the company. Since the centrifugal pump and gasoline engine was replaced by an electric motor and deep well pump, the supply of water has been abundant and steady. This company, through its conservative management, is entirely out of debt, and has a snug bank account to its credit—showing few irrigation companies make. The directors elected for the ensuing year are John A. Larimer, president; F. P. Taylor, vice-president; and John B. Jones, John D. Cason and O. S. Schell, first National Bank of Pomona, trustees.

NEW LIVERY BARN.
John A. Martin, proprietor of the Lobsburg Hotel, has commenced the erection of a new livery barn. It will be located in the part of the country, it will be leased by John Hunter, the addition to the Lobsburg Hotel. This addition to the substantial structure of this town will fill a long-felt want, the present barn being inadequate for the large business which is done here. The teams of the Lobsburg Hotel are much sought after by commercial travelers.

DAVID MYERS DYING.
David L. Myers, an old and respected citizen, has at his home at the home of death, the family and his many friends having given up hope of his recovery. The thirty-year-old son of C. W. Myers died last night at San Dimas of typhoid fever. The funeral will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock, interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

No action was taken. The association is now reorganizing at the home of Mrs. W. B. Taylor, 8. H. Taylor, O. W. Jewett, Henry Charles Lederer, Corwin Phelps, W. B. Chapman, W. B. Atchison, J. C. Grinnon and Mrs. W. J. Shaffer. No action was taken.

COVINA.
NEW BANK IN PROSPECT.
COVINA, Jan. 8.—In many circles, the Covina neighborhood is being talked up as a rapidly rising town, and it is now definitely announced that Covina is to have a new bank. The name of the new institution will be the Covina National, and its cashier will be E. E. Norton, a banker of experience and a brother-in-law of P. E. Hatch, well-known in banking circles at Long Beach. The bank is to be located in the new building, it is stated on Covina, and authority that I. W. Hellman, president of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank of Los Angeles and the Nevada Bank of San Francisco, stands ready to take up all the stock of the new bank. The bank is to be organized by local capital. His brother, Herman W. Hellman, is president of the First National Bank of Covina, and the competition which the organization of the new bank will engender is not expected to be the most brotherly nature.

ARIZONA.
OIL FOR TONTO BASIN DAM.
LONG HAUL BY WAGON MAKES FUEL EXPENSIVE.
Bids Opened at Phoenix for Fifty Thousand Barrels—C. R. Eager & Co. of Los Angeles Make Lowest Bid for Delivering at Roosevelt. Mesa to be Shipping Point.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Jan. 8.—In the local offices of the Reclamation Service, bids were opened yesterday for furnishing 50,000 barrels of fuel oil for use at the cement mill above the Tonto Basin dam site. The bids were opened by Engineer-in-charge L. C. Hill, assisted by Consulting Engineers W. H. Sanders and George Y. Wisner, who arrived yesterday from Los Angeles. This morning Mr. Hill and Mr. Sanders left for Washington, to submit at headquarters the bids and additional plans.

The bids developed several odd features. One was that hauling over the new Tonto Basin road from Mesa to the dam site, a ton, only one cent more than the best bid for hauling over the shorter road from Globe to Roosevelt. This assures the abandonment of Globe as a shipping point, as it has the disadvantage of several hundred miles more railroad haul than Mesa. This wagon haul is the lowest bid by far the heaviest item of expense in the fuel bill.

Only one bid was submitted for delivery of oil at Mesa. It was from the Associated Oil Company of San Francisco, at $1.25 per barrel. The lowest bid per barrel for transporting the oil from Mesa to Roosevelt was that of Woolf Sachs, given out from the Associated company, at $1.25 per barrel. The oil to Roosevelt at $1.25 a barrel, but C. R. Eager & Co. of Los Angeles beat the field with bid of $1.48 a barrel.

The bids per barrel submitted for oil at supply point were: Associated Oil Company, 25 cents at Oil City; Union Oil Company of Los Angeles, 19 1/2 cents at Bakersfield; W. B. Miller of San Francisco, 25 cents at Wall, Kern county; E. B. and A. L. Stone Company of Oakland, 25 cents at East Consolidated spur, Kern county. The Associated Company is now renewing its contract with the city of Prescott for supplying fuel oil to the municipal pumping plant, at Del Rio, about twenty miles north of that city. The price paid for the year past was 30 cents a barrel at Bakersfield, in quantity of 100 or less barrels a month.

"ALLEN'S CAVE."
ONE OF WORLD'S WONDERS.
PRESIDENT (Ariz.) Jan. 8.—It is believed that one of the greatest series of caverns known within the United States will be developed in "Allen's Cave," found a couple of years ago near Jerome in laying the high-pressure pipe line into the camp. A miner named Toole has been exploring the caverns and he pronounces them almost without end. He has crawled through the narrowest of passages, and found cave after cave, each with its own peculiarities, stalagmites and stalactites, and curious rock formations of all sorts. He proposed to make a systematic survey of the caverns.

ERA OF GOOD FEELING.
The city election showed a remarkable era of good feeling in Prescott. The following-named were elected without opposition: Mayor, Morris Goldwater; Aldermen, Ben H. Beicher, W. T. Brown, Assessor, Frank Williams; Treasurer, Henry Harting; Recorder, Charles H. McLean; S. A. Prince was re-elected City Marshal, against two contestants for the office.

SUICIDE OF TOLFREE.
Wednesday morning, Lyman Tolfree, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel at Flagstaff, committed suicide by shooting himself through the chest. The deed was committed in the hotel office, the hotel porter being the only witness. No reason can be found for the suicide, as Tolfree was a man of even, jolly disposition, and did not appear incumbered by debts or personal troubles. He leaves a wife and two married daughters. Tolfree was one of the best-known men along the Santa Fe line, where he was a manager Harvey eating-houses at various points.

After losing all his money at the gambling table, George Kelley, a union miner from McCabe, committed suicide in Prescott Wednesday by the use of morphine.

LAWYERS' BANQUET.
The lawyers of Northern Arizona gathered in Prescott, in extra court session, drawn by invitation to participate in the trial of the case of "The Northern Arizona Bar Association vs. Sundry Victims." They were the guests of the president of the association, Robert E. Morrison, the banquet being the third that has been tendered by successive presidents to the association's membership. E. S. Clark was selected to represent the association in the Arizona lobby at Washington against Joint Statehood.

The Bashford block, one of the best structures of the newer Prescott, has been sold by Coles Bashford to Hugo Richards. The price was $42,500. Damage to the amount of $200 was done at the Copper Chief mine in the destruction by fire of a small hotel owned by James Patterson.

The efforts to secure a smelter for Prescott appear to have been blocked by the refusal of John Duke to sell his ranch, the only really good site for the enterprise near this city. Duke's ranch is a 100-acre tract, with a number of miles from Prescott where water is always to be had, and where an excellent site for the smelter has been located. Duke has been offered $200,000 for the property, but he has refused to sell.

WIRE SHOT OFF.
Jerome celebrated the advent of the New Year in the manner common to Arizona mining camps, by shooting off every shooting iron available. One of the results was that the bullets cut scores of telephone wires, giving work for repairers for several days thereafter. The telephone company most respectfully has asked that exuberant celebrants of future festivals shoot in the direction of the Verde Valley, and not from the front doors of saloons into the blue sky through a network of wires.

Jerome boasts that her municipal government is out of debt and has $200 in the treasury. Mrs. Fred Hawkins, at one time a writer on coast newspapers, has been sent to the Territorial Asylum for the insane, hopelessly demented.
